

Dear Game Master

Follow these steps carefully and make sure no one of the game participants sees you.

1. Cut down the riddles along the lines.
2. Fold each note
3. Hide the notes in these places:
  - Riddle 1 – Hand it to the players when you want to begin the game
  - Riddle 2 – Hide it near a Clock. It can be an analog or a digital one.
  - Riddle 3 – Hide it near the place you keep your board or card games
  - Riddle 4 – Hide it near a Television
  - Riddle 5 – Hide it near a Soap in the bathroom or kitchen
  - Riddle 6 – Hide it near a Picture, that you have on the wall, shelf or table
  - Congratulations note - Hide it near your Mailbox

Game Master's cheat sheet :)

Don't show it to the participants!

- Riddle 1 answer – Clock
- Riddle 2 answer – Games
- Riddle 3 answer – TV
- Riddle 4 answer – Soap
- Riddle 5 answer – Picture
- Riddle 6 answer – Mailbox

Riddle 1

*I show you, but I have no screen
I can't go even to thirteen*

*With two hands I shout and say
The same number twice in one day*

Riddle 2

*Uno, Dos, Tres, are all fun, even if there is some Risk in them
If this Clue is hard, I am Sorry!
These are not Codename.
I am simply playing games with you*

Riddle 3

*Take the winner's sign and add it to the drink
You'll see it clearly on the screen*

*Another way is to add the 22nd to the 20th
Then you'll know what I mean*

Riddle 4

*It's liquid but don't drink it
It's sweet but don't lick it*

*It smells but not trash
Please stay clean and fresh*

Riddle 5

*The clue to help you is tip cure
A thousand words cannot for sure
Even if Lisa gave Mona the Starry Night tour*

Riddle 6

*Box, Man, Junk - What is the word?
The news comes in, good or bad, haven't you heard?*

Congratulations!!!

You solved all the riddles, and you won the game!
